

Brief description of the discipline (abstract)
for the catalog of elective course

“HISTORY OF UKRAINE AND UKRAINIAN CULTURE”

Specialty	Medicine 222 (22 Health care)
Educational level	Master
Term of study (course)	1st year course
Form of study	Full-time
Department	Social and Cultural Study

Summary of the subject: The discipline “History of Ukraine and Ukrainian culture” gives an idea of the stages of historical development of culture, historical process, also provides understanding of the connection of all components of culture - art, ethnography, material culture, scientific knowledge, and aims to expand humanitarian training, creative activity of future professionals. formation of their worldview. The aim of teaching elective course is to develop in students’ national consciousness, and a high level of spirituality, because it is the conversion of people to culture in its deepest sense contributes to the establishment of universal values.

The main tasks of teaching elective course “History of Ukraine and Ukrainian culture” are:

- learn to analyze events in its chronological order;
- to study the cultural heritage of the Ukrainian people from ancient times to nowadays;
- to develop moral norms and values;
- to predict the course of historical processes and their consequences;
- to study the material monuments and spiritual values of the Ukrainian people.

Approximate list of topics (practical, seminars):

1. Introduction. Ancient culture of Ukraine. The beginnings of statehood formation in the Ukrainian lands.
2. Kyiv Rus in 9th-13th centuries.
3. Historical and cultural events in the 2nd part of 14th – 1st part of 17th centuries.
4. Cossacs era.
5. National cultural revival in Ukraine in the end of 18th- 19th centuries.
6. The revival of Ukraine at the beginning of 20th century. Modernism.
7. Ukrainian lands in 1919 – 1939.
8. Ukraine during the Second World War (1939 – 1945).
9. The development of Ukraine in 20th century.
10. National cultural revival of Ukraine in 21st century.

Pedagogical employee who will ensure the conduct of the elective course

Lecturer Nataliia Sktytska

Head of the Department,

associate professor

Antoniy Moysei